Asst. Chief Report:

John Morgan, our representative from the State Highway Safety Network for Aggressive Driving Program has informed us that the new wave for the grant will open on March 18th.

This grant is specifically for Officers on OT ticket traffic violations (Roving Patrols). The OT is paid for by the grant. Also, the Officers have reconsidered DUI Check points and they again will be doing these check points with Lt. Pfanz being in charge. These check points OT hours will also be paid by the Aggressive Driving grant.

Also, in regard to the grants for a new vehicle both Westfall and Matamoras have applied.

Motion to accept Asst. Chief's report made by J. Maney seconded by P. Schaldanot. All in favor. Carried.

Chief Stewart presented a proposed Salary Increase for 2027 Budget.

Commissioner Twiss inquired if a proposal was submitted each year with the budget. Chief Stewart replied No this separate proposal for a salary increase is only for the 2027 budget.
